Program

Allen Brodt introduced our speaker Stacey Wooley, violinist with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Woolley has direct ties to the Westside. His family has lived on the Westside since the late 1800.

Stacey attended Gamble and started to play the violin in the school orchestra. He also played in a band directed by Andy Brady where they played at a YMCA event.

Stacey is one of 2 orchestra members who are on the Board of Directors at the Symphony Orchestra.

His wife is also a member of the orchestra.

He discussed his tenure at the Detroit Symphony before coming to Cincinnati. Mr. Wooley discussed

Violins and the mystery as to why some violins sound better than others. Mr. Wooley treated us by playing a short piece.
